Mr. Prime Minister,
I have been following you in the press after this current election. Fascinating times.
It has been a long time since we have been in touch, and I hope you are well.
Ergo has had a good first quarter and growth continues. In fact, I am hoping that with continued hard work, this will be the year where our private sector sales growth is so high that we resume profitability in this time of USG budget cuts.
Per your very good suggestion the last time we met, we are working on selling subscription intelligence gathering/ monitoring products.
*I'd love to make this a venture you are excited by. To do so, we obviously don't want to compete with the product you are already selling. For example, if I recall correctly, you are focussing on large funds? If so, perhaps we could cooperate on MNC's as clients?
*In that regard, for a large MNC we hope to land as a subscription client, we are trying to update ourselves on Russian / Putin intel. Can you point us in the right direction or do you have insights?
Thanks, and all the best,
R.P.
